

Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP Chairman and CEO Scott E. Friedman a Panelist at Upstate Venture Association of New York Capital Stack Event

June 30, 2017 | PRESS RELEASES

BUFFALO, NY – Scott E. Friedman, chairman and CEO at Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman LLP, recently served as a panelist for Upstate Venture Association of New York’s “The Capital Stack: Funding Sources.” The event focused on educating about the differences between angel and venture equity, and different kinds of debt.

The Upstate Venture Association of New York advances investments in companies throughout Upstate New York, facilitating connections between capital providers, companies and transaction professionals across the state.

At Lippes Mathias Wexler Friedman, LLP, Mr. Friedman focuses his practice principally in two areas: working with entrepreneurs and family businesses. He advises clients across the United States on a wide range of matters relating to the unique dynamics of working with family members. Mr. Friedman also enjoys helping innovators establish companies, including developing financing strategies, business plans, and governance.
